The Library of Congress

The Library of Congress is the nation's oldest federal cultural institution and serves as the research arm of Congress. It is also the largest library in the world, with millions of books, recordings, photographs, maps and manuscripts in its collections. The Library's mission is to make its resources available and useful to the Congress and the American people and to sustain and preserve a universal collection of knowledge and creativity for future generations.

The Burton Foundation

The Burton Foundation is a nonprofit cultural and academic organization devoted to further promoting the stature of the legal profession. The founder of The Burton Awards is William C. Burton, a partner at Sagat|Burton LLP. He is a former NYS Assistant Attorney General, and Assistant Special Prosecutor. He is author of the first reference book of its kind, Burton's Legal Thesaurus (4th edition), published by McGraw-Hill, which recently celebrated its 28th anniversary.

Law360, Lead Sponsor

Law360, a LexisNexis company, is a one-stop source for legal news and analysis, covering litigation, policy developments, corporate deals, and legal industry trends. Law360 covers 60+ practice area, industry, and state sections, and its daily newsletters reach over 1.5 million professionals at top law firms, Fortune 1000 companies, and key government agencies every business day.

American Bar Association, Co-Sponsor

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is one of the largest voluntary professional membership organizations in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
