U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform

The U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform (ILR) is the country's most influential and successful advocate for civil justice reform in the U.S. and abroad. ILR highlights what is wrong in the legal system, conducts cutting-edge research, and advances pragmatic solutions with Congress, state legislatures, federal regulators, international policymakers, and the courts to effect meaningful change. ILR is a 501(c)(6) tax-exempt, separately incorporated affiliate of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.
